ETHEL M CHOCOLATES SENDS OFF SUMMER WITH NEW VIRTUAL CHOCOLATE TASTINGS

Kick-Off Labor Day Weekend with a Delicious Journey from the Comfort of Your Home

HENDERSON, Nev. (August xx, 2020) – Ethel M Chocolates, the Nevada-based craft chocolate division of Mars Inc., is celebrating the last days of summer with its newly established virtual chocolate tastings. At the onset of the pandemic, the chocolatier brought this beloved tradition from the factory to each home. The experience has proven so popular that they have decided to expand over the next few months. Guests are immersed in a one-hour live stream where they can learn everything from the chocolate's origin to savoring each flavor with all of their senses.

"This virtual chocolate tasting experience has allowed our fans all over the nation to connect with us and their loved ones in a very unique way," said Mark Mackey, Chief Chocolatier at Ethel M Chocolates. "We love having this opportunity to expand the education and knowledge of our handcrafted delights."

Once guests have signed up for their virtual chocolate tasting experience, they will receive their tasting kit by FedEx which includes the chocolate pieces shipped on ice in an insulated cooler tote bag along with two tasting placemats and branded pens. An Ethel M Chocolatier will then take guests through their sweet journey via a Zoom session. If plans change and guests cannot make the date and time of the virtual tasting, they will receive an email the next day with a link to participate via a video recording.
